

COMING SOON TO THE Main Library's Nonfiction Collection

We are working very hard to fill in the gaps in our nonfiction collection. You will find books published in 2010 in the "New Nonfiction" section on the first floor, as usual. However, many times we order a title that was published last year or a few years ago, either to replace a worn out copy or to fill in a gap in our collection. You will find these older books on the shelf, near the library's other books on the subject. Go down to the Reference Desk on the lower level. The librarian's will be happy to help you.

Coming soon:

- more on job hunting
- betting on horse racing
- swimming
- skateboarding
- contemporary poetry
